

Learning Partner Expectations

This document outlines the expectations of participants in our training programs as learning partners. Please review the full terms before beginning your training.

Key Expectations

- Maintain a professional and respectful attitude throughout the program.
- Attend all scheduled sessions unless previously excused.
- Submit assignments and assessments on time.
- Respect the intellectual property of course materials.
- Participate actively in group discussions and projects.

For any questions, please contact our training coordinator.